A BRUTE BURNED.

A Horrible Crime and Its Horrible Sequel in Georgia.

NEWMAN, GA., April 23.—In the presence of nearly two thousand persons, who sent aloft yells of defiance and shouts of joy, Sam Hose, a negro, who committed two of the basest acts known to crime, was burned at the stake in a public road one and one-half miles from here this afternoon. Before the torch was applied to the pyre the negro was deprived of his ears, fingers and other portions of his anatomy. The negro pleaded pitifully for his life while the mutilation was going on, but stood the ordeal of fire with surprising fortitude. Before the body was cut it was cut to pieces, the bones were crushed into small bits and even the tree upon which the wretch met his fate was torn up and disposed of as souvenirs. The negro's heart was cut in several pieces, as was also his liver. Those unable to obtain these ghastly relics direct paid their more fortunate possessors extravagant sums for them. Small pieces of bone went for 25 cents and a bit of the liver crisply cooked sold for 10 cents. One of the men who lifted the can of kerosene to the negro's head is said to be a native of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. His name is known to those who were with him, but they refuse to divulge it. The mob was composed of citizens of Newman, Griffin, Palmetto and other little towns in the country round about Newman, and of all the farmers who had received word that the burning was to take place.

The Hon. W. Y. Atkinson, former Governor of Georgia, met the mob as he was returning from church and appealed to them to let the law take its course. In addressing the mob he used these words: "Some of you are known to me, and when this affair is finally settled in the Courts you may depend upon it that I will testify against you." A member of the mob was seen to draw a revolver and level it at Governor Atkinson, but his arm was seized and the pistol taken from him. The mob was frantic at delays, and would hear to nothing but burning at the stake.

Hose confessed to killing Cranford, but denied that he outraged Mrs. Cranford. Before being put to death the negro stated that he had been paid $12 by "Lige" Strickland, a negro preacher at Palmetto, to kill Cranford. To-night a mob of citizens is scouring the country for Strickland, who has left his home, and will lynch him if caught.

Sam Hose, killed Alfred Cranford, a white farmer, near Palmetto, and outraged his wife, ten days ago. Since that time business in that part of the State has been suspended, the entire population turning out in an effort to capture Hose.

Governor Candler has been asked to send troops here to preserve order for a day or two, as it is feared the negroes may wreak vengeance, many threats to that effect having been made.

GOVERNOR CANDLER'S POSITION.
To-night Governor Candler gave the Associated Press the following statement on the burning of Sam Hose, near Newman:

"The whole thing is deplorable, and Hose's crime, the horrid details of which have not been published, and are too horrible for publication, is the most diabolical in the annals of crime. The negroes of that community lost the best opportunity they will ever have to elevate themselves in the estimation of their white neighbors. The diabolical nature of the double crime was known to every one of them; the perpetrator was well known and they owed it to their race to exhaust every means of bringing Hose to justice. This course would have done more to elevate them in the estimation of good people, and to protect their race against the mob, than all the rewards and proclamations of all the Governors for the next fifty years. But they lost the opportunity, and it is a deplorable fact that while scores of intelligent negroes, leaders of their race, have talked to me about the Palmetto lynching, not one of them has ever, in the remotest way, alluded to the burning of Palmetto, which provoked the lynching, nor to the diabolical crime of Hose. I do not believe the men sympathize with Hose or the Palmetto incendiaries, but they are blinded by race prejudice, and can see but one side of the question. This is unfortunate. They must learn to look at both sides. I want to protect them in every legal right, and against mob violence, and stand ready to employ every resource of the State in doing so, but they must realize that in order to merit and receive the protection of the community they must show willingness to at least aid in protecting the community against the lawless element of their own race. The good and law-abiding negroes must separate themselves from the lawless and criminal element. They must denounce crime and aid in bringing criminals to justice, whether they be black or white. In this way they can do more to protect themselves than the Courts and juries in the State can do for them. To secure protection against lawless whites they must show a disposition to protect the white people against lawless blacks."

REMEMBER THE FACTS.
The Constitution will say to-morrow: The man who expiation which Sam Hose was forced to pay for his crime will arouse a flood of discussion, carried on by those who know the facts on the one side, and by those who do not care for the facts on the other.

"But, while the form of this criminal's punishment cannot be upheld, let those who are disposed to criticize it look into the facts—and by these facts temper the judgment they may render.

"An unassuming, industrious and hardworking farmer, after his day's toil, sat at his evening meal; around him sat wife and children, happy in the presence of the man who was fulfilling to them every duty imposed by nature. At peace with the world, serving God and loyal to humanity, they looked forward to the coming day.

"Noisily the murderer, with uplifted axe, advanced in the rear, and sank it to the helve in the brain of the unsuspecting victim.

"Tearing the child from the mother's breast, he flung it into the pool of blood oozing from its father's wound.

"Then began the culmination which has detracted the reason of the people of Western Georgia during the past week. As critics will howl about the lynching, the Constitution will be pardoned for stating the plain facts.

"The wife was seized, choked, thrown upon the floor, where her clothing lay in the blood of her husband, and ravished!

"Remember the facts! Remember the dark night in the country home! Remember the slain husband, and above all, remember that shocking degradation which was inflicted by the black beast, his victim swimming in her husband's warm blood, as the brute held her to the floor!

"Keep the facts in mind. When the picture is painted of the ravisher in flames, go back and view that darker picture of Mrs. Cranford outraged in the blood of her murdered husband."

ANOTHER MAN HUNG.

PALMETTO, GEORGIA, April 24.—Lige Strickland, a negro preacher who was implicated in the murder of Cranford and the assault on his wife by the confession of Sam Hose, was caught at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

His ears were cut off and several fingers amputated with pocket knives at his home, and he was hung to a tree. After hanging ten hours in the sun, his body was cut down and carried to the calaboose in Palmetto and locked up.

It is reported that men are now in hot pursuit after two other negroes who have been implicated in the Cranford tragedy.

Singing Convention.

BEECH, S. C., April 1st, 1899.
A Singing Convention was organized on April 1st at Midway Church, Abbeville County, and was held at Beech, S. C. Mitchell, took the chair, and stated the object of the meeting. The following officers were elected: T. P. Milford, President; E. C. Shirley, Vice President; T. Earle Elgin, Secretary; J. B. Hampton, Chairman. The President then appointed a committee of four, consisting of W. D. Mann, E. C. Shirley, W. S. C. McClellan and the Secretary to draft by-laws.

Mr. Eskew, of Anderson County, was asked by President Milford to take charge of the singing exercises, which he did with credit. Prof. J. T. Milford, of Anderson County, also rendered valuable services.

An intermission of one hour was then given for dinner.

In the afternoon Prof. T. M. Locke, of Beaufort, S. C., had charge of the singing. It goes without saying that Prof. Locke is a talented singer, and his euphonious voice added much to the occasion. Prof. F. M. Banister, of Anderson County, was present, and his singing was much enjoyed by all.

The by-laws were then read to the Convention and approved.

Saturday night an interesting sermon was preached by the pastor to a large and appreciative audience.

Singing was again conducted on Sunday, Prof. M. W. Willis, of Anderson, being present, together with the above mentioned singers, added much to the exercises.

An urgent appeal was made by the pastor for the Orphanage.

A committee was appointed consisting of the following: T. E. Elgin, Chairman, W. D. Mann, C. M. Clinkscapes and John Knox, whose duty it shall be to receive invitations from different Churches in the County that may wish the Convention to meet with them, and to arrange the time and program for the next meeting.

T. EARLE ELGIN, Secretary.

Much of the gloom and despondency which has prevailed throughout our entire titlement for the past few weeks, on account of so very much rain, has all passed away with the bleaky clouds, and the beautiful rays of the sun have been permitted to fall, much to the delight of the hustling "blow-boys," who in renewed energy are early and late.

Mr. Jack Williams, of Alabama, is out on a visit to his sisters, Mrs. Bob. Thomson and family. He has other relatives and a host of friends and schoolmates who are delighted to see him, and hope he will make his stay a long one with us.

Mr. C. A. Welborn and family were overjoyed to have their much esteemed sister and aunt to visit them last week. Certainly their hearts were made glad to greet her for the first time in fifteen years; but, oh, how she is to part with ones you know you will not see again soon.

Dr. Richardson is at home now on his vacation, much to the delight of all. School will be out at this place in about three weeks, at which time we are expecting to have a picnic, to break the monotony. On Saturday following our excellent and highly esteemed teachers, Prof. Leott and Miss Wakefield, will board the train for their "paternal domiciles," but will, in a short while, return for the Summer school.

Mrs. Ducworth's class are invited to Mrs. M. J. Gentry's the coming Saturday night. Of course, we are all expecting a gay time, as "our" class are always delighted to be together on special occasions as this, for I know each of us enjoy them.

The farmers are as busy as they can be putting in guano and planting cotton seed.

The wheat crops in and around this section are looking very promising. The fruit crop, especially the peaches, are very near all killed.

Our pastor, Rev. D. W. Hiott, preached a very interesting sermon to a large attentive audience last third Sunday at this place.

There will be a singing at this place next first Sunday afternoon. The public is invited to attend.

We have a very flourishing school at this place with an up-to-date teacher, Miss Nellie Walters.

Mr. T. Davis, of Belton, was visiting in our burg the third Sunday. Come again, young man, you are always welcome.

Mr. James Pruitt and son, from below Belton, were visiting the family of Mr. M. W. Callahan one night last week.

Miss Bessie Shirley, of Honea Path, is visiting at home of Mr. W. C. Scott, the guest of Miss Nellie Walters. COUNTRY CRACKER.

Beautiful Millinery!

Progress!

WE are making great progress in our Millinery Department this season. We are now right in the heat of the season. We have never enjoyed such a run as we have had so far this season. The Department has sent out the greatest number of pretty Hats up to this date that it has ever done in the same period of time. Is this not a clinching argument that we have what the Ladies are wanting, both as to style and price?

Pretty, practical Hats is what we are showing. At same time we are fixing up some very fine Hats that are grand and beautiful. We have had the good fortune of fitting up quite a number of Brides in their pretty headwear.

Nothing adds more to the dressy appearance of a Lady, (young or old,) than a pretty and becoming Hat or Bonnet. A pretty Hat often makes a pretty girl. Note the difference in a becoming Hat and one just made to sell. This business has grown season after season, and if we continue throughout as we have started this will be our banner season.

We have just received a big lot of new—

HAT SHAPES, FLOWERS, &C.,

And are in the best condition to please you. Bought some things at very low prices. Can give you the worth of your money, to say the least of it.

A perfectly huge lot of Ladies', Misses' and Children's—

SAILORS,

In plain white, fancy, mixed and rough straw, all in the newest shapes, at the popular price of 50c. Sold at much greater price first of season.

Plain White Sailors 10c to $2.00.

Black Sailors 10c to $1.50.

Children's Sailors 25c to $1.50.

Full line of Children's Hats and Caps, and Baby Caps, in Silk and Lawn, at popular prices.

We have a very large Stock of Millinery, and want to make May's Millinery business as large as April's has been.

WE WILL OFFER INDUCEMENTS.

We have never done better work in the Department than we are doing now. Note the fact: There is as much in a well-put-together Hat as there is in a well-made Dress. Notice how well the Hats sent out from our Department hold their shape. We are constantly having our attention called to this fact.

We are giving our customers the worth of their money. We want to please every one. Don't want you to take a Hat out of the Department that is not satisfactory.

We are ready to make, trim and retrim, and do everything we can to make your trading with us pleasant and satisfactory.

THINK OF IT!

Doesn't it look reasonable that we should want to please every Lady that comes into the Department? Can't sell the Ladies unless you please them. Now, if we didn't sell pretty Hats and please the Ladies we would not sell more of them every season.

We want you to feel at home in the Department. Tell us what you like and don't like, and we are sure to please you.

We extend a cordial invitation to every Lady coming to the city to visit our Millinery Department.

Yours very truly,
